Invite

We are pleased to welcome you to the 4th Annual Symposium of Lucknow Orthopaedic Society. This esteemed event will take place on the picturesque landscape campus of SGPGI, which stands as the only medical university in Uttar Pradesh with a distinguished NAAC A++ rating.

The symposium promises an excellent academic programme designed to enhance knowledge and foster collaboration among professionals in the field of orthopaedics.

The theme for this year Symposium will be “ Current Concepts in Hip Trauma : A Case Based Discussion “

As we all know injuries around hip represent a complex challenge in the field of orthopedic trauma management. The intricacies involved in diagnosing and treating these injuries necessitate a comprehensive approach.

The upcoming Los Symposium will provide a platform for practitioners seeking to enhance their knowledge and skills in this domain. The symposium will equip attendees with the necessary tools and insights needed to optimize patient outcomes effectively.

We warmly invite all participants to join this gathering, where your insights and expertise will play a crucial role in the event's success. Your involvement is invaluable as we humbly work together to advance the frontiers of orthopaedics.
